When the writ petition came up for admission on 22.02.2007 the learned Government Pleader sought time to get instructions, accordingly the matter was directed to be listed after ten days.

As the learned Government Pleader failed to obtain instructions the matter was adjourned for another two weeks by order dated 05.03.2007.

2. Petitioner submits that the Station House Officer of Chevella Police Station, Ranga Reddy District – the first respondent herein, who is also impleaded by name as third respondent is calling him to police station regularly and threatening with dire consequences if he is not willing to accept for the compromise in civil dispute between him and the fourth respondent. He further submits that there are certain financial disputes between him and the fourth respondent and the third respondent is no way concerned with the said disputes.

He further submits that there is no complaint whatsoever filed against him much less about committing cognizable offence. He submits that the third respondent without any justification whatsoever is unnecessarily calling him to the police station and pressuring him to compromise the civil dispute.

3. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the respondents 1 and 3 are directed not to interfere with the civil disputes of the petitioner and not to call him to the police station without there being any complaint lodged against him alleging commission of a cognizable offence.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
